CONTENTS

On the banks of rushing Warrior,
Nestles Martin High,
True to thee, our Alma Mater,
Neath the Southern Skies.

Martin, Martin, dear old Martin,
True to thee we'll be,
May we be thy staunch defenders
Through eternity.

Long beneath thy walls we've lingered
All with kindred minds,
We, to thee and to each other,
Find a tie that binds.

As we leave thee, Alma Mater,
Leave thy guiding light,
Higher still we'll hold thy banner
Red and the white.

Foreword

As we, the Class of '63, take leave of our beloved Thomas W. Martin High School, we pause for a moment to glance over a few of the happier memories which have made this year such a momentous one in our lives - the football games, the banquets, the fun as well as the work, and our rapidly approaching graduation. Through the years these memories will maintain a closeness to our Alma Mater.

We take great pleasure in bringing you the fourteenth edition of the Martinian and hope that it will bring as much enjoyment to you as it does to us as it recalls the wonderful history of this 1963 school year.

Dedication

A successful high school principal is a fusion of many personalities. First, he must be a teacher; but in addition, he must also be diplomat, mediator, philosopher, psychologist, disciplinarian, supervisor, administrator, coordinator, promoter, and comptroller - to name a few.

Mr. William T. Brakefield, our principal, has acquired the traits of these to the extent that he is held in love and high esteem by students, teachers, and members of the community who know him. Because of his continued service to the community and its children, this edition of the MARTINIAN is dedicated to him.

Principal's Message

The opportunity for schooling is part of the heritage of every American. More and more we see that education is the golden light that pierces the darkness of poverty and prejudice, inequality and injustice, disease and despair. It shines as mankind's brightest hope for achieving the desires and wants that we all encounter. Hard work, vision, alertness, fair play, along with a well-rounded education are the keys to a successful life for yourself, home, and community.

Your education goes hand in hand with your spiritual training, and it cannot be purchased, passed on by someone else, or awaited for. The earlier in life that we see our need for spiritual growth, education, good health, friends, and many of man's material needs, the more fruitful and fuller life we can live. We need a purpose in life, and an education is one of the requirements for attaining this purpose.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Thomas W. Martin High School has throughout the years been a superior organization receiving recognition at local, state and national levels. For a number of years it has assigned itself two major projects. Every year funds are made available for improving the school library. Other yearly projects include such things as: Water coolers, auditorium chairs, and a highway underpass for access to the playground. This year, in addition to the library project, a loading canopy was erected at the bus loading site.

In every way the Martin PTA strives "to promote the welfare of children."

The first thing that I have to say is that I absolutely deny the fact of being the class grumbler. I don't grumble half as much as Charles Gant. I don't know what put that idea into those Seniors' hard heads. If they're not accusing me of one thing, it's another. I'm just about fed up with that bunch anyway. I don't see how Miss White puts up with them, especially that Mary Key. She thinks she has everyone wrapped around her little finger with that cute face and sweet smile. Well, I've got news for her; here's one who isn't.

In case anyone is interested, that's not a new bouffant hair style Elizabeth Akins is wearing. She just has a swollen head from all this attention. Elizabeth, just because you're bigger than everyone else doesn't mean you have to be boss. I wish Linda Goodwin would be more careful about where she flashes that diamond ring. It distracts me so that I can't do my English. Douglas Odom thinks that because he is so tall, he's above everybody else. Well, I'm just as good as he is. Douglas, Douglas, lend me your comb. I certainly would like to know where everyone got the idea that Lynnse Blackston should be Mr. Martin. Why, he's so ugly, I bet he's afraid to look in the mirror at himself.

I wonder where Raymond Key spends his days. Not in school, I know. Everyone keep your fingers crossed and we may find out who knows the most, Linda Busby or Coach Dotson. She's always arguing with him, I hear. Wilma Cornelius, whom do you think you're fooling by taking that carload of books home everyday? I study more than you and I think I should have gotten the most studious. Nancy (Lightfeet) Key, will you stop showing off by going around doing all those fancy dances that you learned in Chicago last summer? You're not the only one who can dance. Ginger Morrow, I wondered why Ronny Robbins had been doing so well in English. Have you been doing his homework? Betty Price thinks she knows everything just because she's been to New York. Well, I know as much as she does and I haven't even been to Hooting Hollow. Brenda Sanford is so stuck up; I can't even get close enough to touch her with a ten-foot pole. Carol Smith thinks her feet are pretty cute. Everytime I see her she's admiring them.

I wish Gary Perry, James Arlie Sanford, Charles Gant, and J. R. Seales would stop holding their daily Car Conference in the hall. I can't even get to my locker for them. You'd think they were out for football the way they stay in a huddle all the time. Honestly, they're worse than we girls. Jerry Sadberry, just because you drive our bus doesn't mean you have to try to drag with every car that you see. I would like to get home safely every evening.

Dianne Custred, just because you got the biggest flirt along with Neil Key doesn't mean that you have to live up to your title. There's someone else I can't stand - Neil Key. He thinks that just because he made a few touch-downs he is sitting high. Can you tell me how Paul Davis got Mr. Homecoming? That's ridiculous. And, every time I turn around he's flashing that camera. Now I come to Judy Teague. You know, it's a funny thing. I just can't think of anything good to say about her. As a matter of fact, I can't even think of anything to say about her at all. So I won't even try. I wish I knew whose vote it was that made Paul Wayne Jones our class favorite. I'd like to wring his neck. And those jokes! You should hear some of them!

Does anyone know how Karen Gant got most versatile? That's almost too impossible to believe. I honestly believe that next to Judy Teague, Bonnie Nell Norris has the biggest mouth in the whole school, even bigger than mine - and that's saying a lot. Does anyone know what's the matter with Andrea Manley, Mary Garner, and Sarah Blackston? They just don't ever speak. I guess they think they're too good for us. I don't see how Pat Price ever got to be a cheerleader. Why, she's the ugliest girl at Martin and not the least bit popular. Who says Margaret Carter should have won the beauty contest? I must say that I absolutely do not agree. What ever happened to John Self? I never hear him anymore. He must be too engrossed with "you know who." Clyde Key, just because you had a few little old stitches in your side doesn't mean you have to walk as stiff as a board. James Ferguson and Johnny Hyde! What a match! They never speak to anyone; but that's all right. If they don't want to speak to me, I don't care about speaking to them.

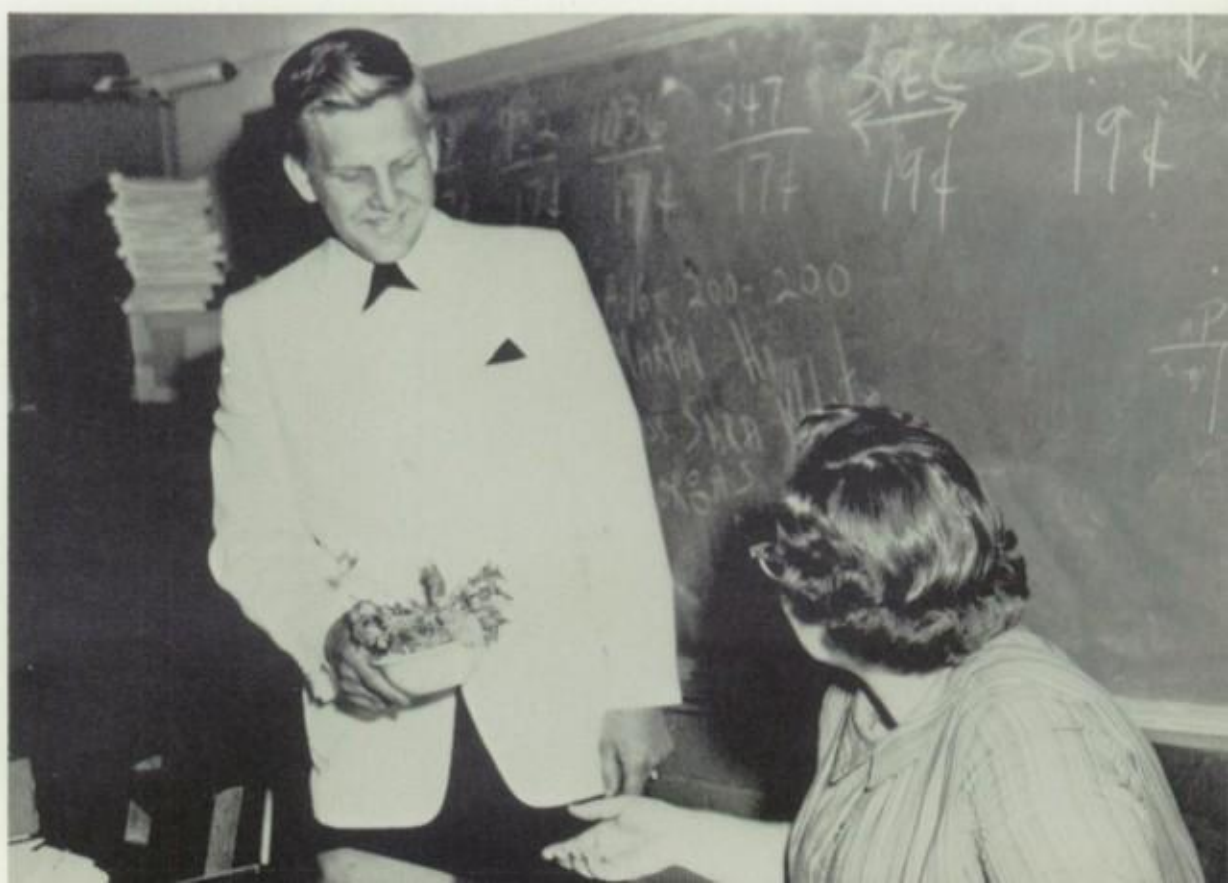

Mr. Brakefield, you had better stop running around trying to find fires to put out. You know you're not as young as you used to be. Mr. Wylie, I wish you would stop using those big, long words and come down to earth. I just can't get a bit of sense out of you. And some certain girls said they wish you would learn to wash dishes and stop giving them dishpan hands. And Miss White! Flirting with those businessmen that come to our room! I'd be ashamed of myself if I were you.

And now, last but not least, Freida Sanford. Isn't she just the cutest, nicest, sweetest, most adorable girl you've ever seen? I just love her to death. You know, she's the only one in that Senior bunch who's worth a flip - and not a bit conceited! Don't you agree?

A Future Peek

The future of the class of '63 has truly been a difficult one to predict. But as I have been a member of it for 10 1/2 years, I feel that I know my classmates rather well - at least well enough to make a stab at making predictions for it.

To begin with I see PAT PRICE as the new owner of the Adorable Shop, for TALL girls only.

LYNNSE BLACKSTON is next with his newly acquired gift-of-gab. He puts it to good use as Alabama's new member of Congress.

PAUL WAYNE JONES owns a chain of novelty stores all over the U.S. You can always find him and RONNY ROB-BINS, pulling practical jokes on the customers at Ronny's restaurant, RON'S RUN.

RAYMOND KEY always told me that if he ever went to Hollywood he would be an immediate success. Well, he was correct! He and CAROL SMITH have just begun their fifth in a series of Tarzan movies.

LINDA GOODWIN has inherited a fortune; so she just sits around listening to her stereo, playing DOUGLAS ODOM'S records.

FREIDA SANFORD and her Love-Lorn column - it amazes me where she gets the many solutions she has. It is about time she got around to using them.

You would think CHARLES GANT would learn when to stop; but no, he is determined to break his neck in his dragster, The Orchid Lady.

MARGARET CARTER has just been named the nation's top hair stylist.

As we could have expected, MARY ELIZABETH KEY was recently named to the group of top ten best dressed American women.

JAMES FERGUSON is teaching Algebra and other maths at Martin.

ELIZABETH AKINS is now Fashions Editor for The Birmingham News.

JOHN SELF holds down the job of Sports Editor over there, also.

If you want an honest deal on a set of wheels, then go see Honest JOHNNY HYDE in Jasper.

NANCY KEY can be found as sales manager of Brombergs in Birmingham; their specialty is diamond watches.

BRENDA SANFORD and SARAH BLACKSTON are now taking care of the typing and bookkeeping end of NEIL KEY'S Dry Cleaning business.

BONNIE NORRIS is doing fine as a teacher of English at Walker Junior College.

I find LINDA LOU BUSBY now working as a draftsman for Hayes Aircraft Corporation.

MRS. KAREN RUTH GANT is quite happy at home with Brent and Ray. But she is doing a bit of private tutoring for the Senior class at Martin High.

(Yes, MISS WHITE is still teaching English at Martin.)

As president of Ford Motor Company, JERRY SADBERRY finally is finding out what makes those Fords perform the way they do.

PAUL DAVIS now owns and manages the SNAP-IT photo studios. He always was a camera bug.

DIANNE CUSTRED and ANDREA MANLEY are kept busy with their INSTANT DIAPER SERVICE.

Among their regular customers is J. R. SEALES and spouse.

BETTYE JEAN PRICE and WILMA CORNELIUS are a sight. Theirs is the happiest children's clinic I've ever known.

JAMES ARLIE SANFORD has made and broken his own speed records on race tracks all over the world.

CLYDE KEY is now coaching the winning team, The Martin Warriors.

If you pick up a magazine and the face of the cover girl seems familiar, you probably will be looking at your former classmate, MARY GARNER.

GARY PERRY owns a string of motels and hotels along the eastern seaboard.

MR. WYLIE is about to learn how to wash dishes and make up his own jokes.

JUDY TEAGUE, Prophet

CLASS POEM

We met upon the shores of time
And in this little place,
We prepared ourselves for future years
To join in life's frightful race.

As we walk along the path of life,
We anticipate the day
When all our troubles and our strife
Will soon begin to pay.

Now, as we look back through former years,
Remembering our aims and dreams,
And teachers who shared and lulled our fears,
And for whom we hold high esteem.

Now as we leave thee, Alma Mater,
To weather life's frightful seas,
We will always remember your hallowed halls
And your defenders we will always be.

PAUL DAVIS, Poet

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1963. being "NEARLY" of sound mind, declare this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, daring anyone to defy it. Now we begin our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, leaving to our up-coming Senior Classes our prolonged problems and troubles of being Seniors.

I, Wilma Cornelius, will to Gretchen Harsany my memories of the summer of 1959 with the hope that our friendship will always remain as then.

I, John Self, will my ability not to be injured during football season to Keith Wright.

I, Linda Goodwin, will my ability to get caught "hollering" at the lunchroom steps by Coach Dotson to Shirly Gibson.

I, Freida Sanford, will my ability to get Class Grumbler to Iwana Smith.

I, Paul Wayne Jones, will my ability to get thrown out of the Cordova football game to Jerry Sanford and Sammy Smith.

I, Nancy Key, will my ability to get the title of Wittiest in the Senior Class to Tommy Key in hopes it will stay in the family.

I, Margaret Carter, will my ability to get Cutest in the Senior Class to Laura Busby.

I, Ronny Robbins, will my ability to get hurt in football practice to Jimmy Sullivan and Benny Jones, in hopes they can do better with them than I did.

I, Charles Gant, will my ability to walk like a cowboy to James (Montana) Short, also the ability to get wittiest and Lawyer of the Senior Class to anybody who gets it.

I, J. R. Seales, will my ability to lose things to Philip Key.

I, Elizabeth Akins, will my possibilities of editorship next year to Jane Brakefield.

I, Johnny Hyde, will my ability as the Old Pro in football to Ronny Mac Henderson and not to finish all the football games.

We, Ginger Morrow and Pat Price, will our dishpan hands caused by Mr. Wylie's 6th period study hall to Beckie Gurganus and Linda Minor.

I, Jerry Sadberry, will my ability to make the girls happy when I come around to Tommy Sadberry.

I, Judy Teague, will my ability to get Prophet and write a dilly of one to Jo Ann Ferguson.

I, Andrea Manley, will my ability to skip school without getting caught to Sue Jones.

I, Carol Smith, will my ability to chew gum under Miss White without getting caught to Marilyn Earnest.

I, James Arlie Sanford, will to the up-coming Senior Class Miss White.

I, Gary Perry, will nobody anything, because I need all I have.

I, Linda Busby, will my ability to get away with loafing to Norma Lockhart.

I, Lynnse Blackston, will my ability to get my nose broken in football practice to Jerry Sanford.

I, Dianne Custred, being of sound mind, will my ability to get into trouble to Shelia Lowery.

I, Sarah Blackston, will my Senior year and all of my happiness to Bonnie Nell Earnest and Mary Doris Key.

I, Betty Price, will my title of "Most Dignified" to Linda Jackson.

I, Brenda Sanford, will my love for boys with black and brown eyes, as I am now going with a blond headed, green eyed boy to Barbara Carter.

I, Mary Key, will my ability to get along with people to Doris Jean Hosmer and Barbara Bolton.

I, Clyde Key, will my ability to take a 3 1/2 week vacation during the middle of football season to Joe Mullinax.

I, James Ferguson, being of sound mind and body (I hope), do hereby will my ability to do algebra to Robert Patterson.

I, Douglas Odom, will my ability to get to school late every morning to Billy Ray Jackson.

I, Bonnie Norris, will my height to Shirley Wallace, in hopes we both can grow taller.

I, Raymond Key, will my Senior year and happy times to Sam Key.

A Page of the Past

The purpose of this history is to relate the steps we have taken in becoming Seniors.

I shall try to review some of the highlights of the activities and experiences of our high school years so that you, who come after us, might share with us the reminiscence of the happiest years of our lives.

After eight years of struggling, we greeted our freshman year with cheers of excitement. We received numerous honors and our scholastic rating was high. We had several boys to participate in various sports.

In our sophomore year, the doors of opportunity and leadership were opening wider. Mrs. Thomaston guided us along in the right direction in becoming honored Beta, Thespian, and Dramatic Club members. We were honored with the boys and girls making the "M" Club.

With our sophomore year finally over, we started our Junior year. First of all, our class won first place in the Miss Homecoming race. As for our girls, I think we have some beauties. We were all proud of Mary Key, for she was head cheerleader this year. We had two more girls among the cheerleaders - Carol Smith and Pat Price. The class activities were many. Highlight of the year was probably the Jr. - Sr. Banquet for which we worked mighty hard.

Now we are Seniors. We are still showing our ability in sports by placing eight Seniors on the "A" string in football and having three Seniors among the cheerleaders. At homecoming we were represented by Miss Homecoming and her escort. In the beauty contest we were honored to have Mr. and Miss Martin High come from our class.

In closing, we would like to thank our parents and teachers, who have helped us so much throughout these few years.

MARY KEY

During the closing months of last school year, Mary Key was elected, for the second time, head cheerleader; however, because of possible injury to her health she felt that she should resign this position. Because of her splendid job as head cheerleader, her resignation was deeply regretted. Although she did not serve as cheerleader, her spirit and interest remained with our cheering squad, and for this reason she is recognized here.
